

I am concerned that LPFM broadcasting might displace the family orientated broadcast of K-LOVE on local FM translators (88.7 for one) that my family and myself listen to every day. It is my opinion that K-LOVE provides quality programming and music that is unique and of great value as an alternative to other local programming that is not suitable for family entertainment!